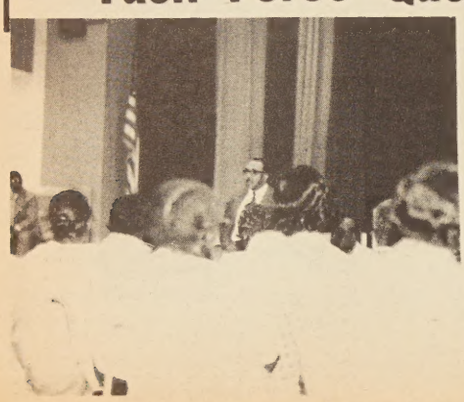
TACOMA POLICE TO ENFORCE BACK-TO-SCHOOL PROGRAM

Task Force Questions Answered



PROGRAM PLANNING Manager Alonzo Foote Sr. answers questions at Monday's Combined Task Force meeting.

Model Cities Task Force members expressed concern about relocation and technology funds at Monday night's meeting.

A resolution passed by the task force recommended use of temporary relocation funds for permanent relocation of families whose homes cannot be rehabilitated. Funds set aside for relocation are required by the Department of Housing and Urban Development to assist persons who must move while their homes are being rehabilitated. HUD sets the amount which must be kept in reserve and requires that it only be used for temporary relocation not permanent.

Task Force members also asked questions about a proposal passed by the Executive Board and one now under consideration. The proposals are for funding the City's Technology Transfer Center and a City hearing examiner. The technology center helps government apply research to its operations, and the hearings examiner will improve land use planning in the city.

The programs would be funded by a $200,000 grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development for system improvement and new technology. The funds were not intended to be used for system improvement and new technology. The funds were not intended to be used for traditional Model Cities projects, but must be used to improve management and technology usage in the city government.

Association Registration Continues

Registration for the Advisory Association of Tacoma will continue through Monday for all registered Tacoma voters who want to vote in the Executive Board election on Oct. 10.

Interested citizens can register at the Tacoma Model Cities office, 622 Tacoma Ave. S., or the Tacoma Urban League office, 1704 S. K St., during regular office hours. Past association members do not have to register again to vote in the election.

Association members can vote on Oct. 10 in two places: the County-City Building, second floor lobby, from 8 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., and the Tacoma Urban League from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Five elected positions are open and will be filled by the election with the possibility of a sixth being added. (One resignation has been submitted but not officially accepted by the board.) Four positions will be appointed by Mayor Gordon Johnston.

The results of the election will be announced at the annual Advisory Association meeting to be held at 7:30 p.m. in the City Council Chambers of the County-City Building. The annual session will include a review of the accomplishments of the past year and a look to the future changes in federal funding to cities.

Tacoma's school truancy problems are not only of major concern to school administrators, but also the Tacoma Police Department. The problems have been closely reviewed over the past several weeks and both the schools and police believe they have developed a workable solution which will benefit the youth of the City.

Many truant youngsters, faced with nothing to occupy their time constructively, get into trouble by burglarizing residential areas and taking whatever items are available for quick sale or personal use.

"On a nationwide average it is estimated that 63 per cent of all burglaries are committed by juveniles. 62 per cent of all burglaries are in residential areas, and of these over 50% are committed during daylight hours. This is a serious and very costly type of criminal activity and we believe our new program will, as a similar one did in California, deter such activity drastically."

Lt. Stan Zatterberg of the Crime Prevention Unit outlined the "Return-to-School Program" for news media by stressing that it was a joint effort by both the school administration and police department. "We want the students in the schools where they will broaden their knowledge and build minds which will make them valuable assets, not liabilities, to our society. The program has been carefully structured to accomplish this objective without giving the truant juvenile a police record or requiring incarceration in Remann Hall."

Lt. Zatterberg said a "hand-picked" squad of officers from the Patrol Division will comprise the program's manpower. "We want to protect the youth from publicity whenever possible," Lt. Zatterberg explained.

Officers assigned to the "Return'to'School Program" will be driving unmarked City vehicles bearing license plates beginning with a single letter ("D") and a series of numerals. The officers will be in civilian clothes and will present their identification cards and badges when contacting youngsters. "We wish to emphasize this strongly," Lt. Zatterberg added. "Our people all carry official police identification in addition to their badges and will show this identification upon contacting an individual. In addition, they will be driving the city licensed vehicles to prevent anyone from using this new program to prey upon unsuspecting youth for other purposes."

The program begins Monday, September 30, 1974, and will be city-wide.

I've seen boys on my baseball team go into slumps and never come out of them, and I've seen others snap right out and come back better than ever. I guess more players lick themselves than are ever licked by an opposing team. The first thing any man has to know is how to handle himself.

a HUD acquired home in a location that's right for you

from $9,950 to $37,500

Throughout western Washington, and particularly in Pierce, King and Snohomish Counties, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (FHA) has acquired many fine homes in many locations and price ranges. These homes range from a quaint cottage to one of many fine homes in well-established subdivisions throughout the Puget Sound area.

Before an acquired home is offered for sale, HUD makes certain it can warrant the home to be structurally sound, with heating, plumbing and electrical systems in good operating condition. (Since these are "used" homes, no warrant is made against normal "wear and tear" defects). Local contractors have made repairs and alterations; have refinished and repainted. Some homes have even been landscaped.

Home prices are determined by experienced HUD appraisers. They have a thorough knowldege of houses, of the area, and of the market. Right now, home prices are the lowest they have been in years. You can be certain they will go up again - soon. Act now, your home is waiting for you....clean, neat and empty.

These HUD acquired homes are easy to find: ask any salesman in almost every real estate office about a HUD acquired home that is right for you. Easy terms, quick possession.

All homes are "open listings", available to any prospective purchaser regardless of race, creed, color or national origin. See the Real Estate broker of your choice today.

Leisure Hour won the match 29-25 in points. This was our first home to home match. The fellowship was great and we are looking forward to a trip to Portland soon. The Planning Committee for our annual awards banquet and dance met Monday and plans were made for the affair to be held at the Fort Lewis Officers Beach Club on the 16th of November. Entertainment for the affair will be provided by the talented Magnum Force, headed by the great organist, Paul Richardson. Members don't forget your election ballot for next Thursdays meeting. THE FACTS—SPORTS SCENE

Sports Record Book

by Brian Jaybush

View from the Sidelines

"The newspapers are always hedging, saying we'll win, maybe. But I know the boys, have known them all since they were freshman. I know better."

A coach with a lot of faith in his prayers, right? No, but the speaker of those words does see a lot of football games from her sidelines position as a member of the UW Huskies' Cheer Staff. Nancy Mertz is the diminutive (MUCH less than 5-feet-tall) young lady's name. She said it during the second quarter of last Saturday's Washington-Iowa State game; on the field at the time, the Huskies were on the short end of a 7-0 score.

NANCY MERTZ

Nancy was refering to newspaper stories in the city's two dailies which have been rapping Jim Owens' charges as not having much chance in the PAC-8 conference's Race for the Rose Bowl this season. (One Seattle sports editor gave the Huskies the benefit of the doubt; he figures they'll finish sixth, and was "tempted" to pick them fifth.) And after last year's dismal 2-9 record, that might seem a fair prediction. Not to Nancy.

"They have no faith. This is a good team!" she bubbled. "Especially the P-I. They always write bad things. You're not from the P-I, are you?"

She didn't wait for an answer. It was now the third quarter, with the score knotted 14-14; on the field, Husky quarterback Denny Fitzbatrick was breaking Iowa State backs, legs, arms and tackles and he stumbled and crashed 54 yards in what has to be the most exciting quarterback sneak in Husky history.

(After the game, Denny told us that his running "wasn't really a part of the game plan. But if the opportunity is there, do it." Fitz did it, picking up 102 yards rushing on 16 carries, not bad for a QB who came in as a substitute in the second quarter.)

The touchdown that resulted from that run made the score 21-14 Huskies, and we asked Nancy if that was enough. "No, no, I want a BIG win. The bigger the better!"

A field goal by Steve Robbins stretched the Husky lead to 24-14; but the biggest play of the afternoon was actually seven plays--seven carries in a row by running back Willie Hendrix, who nearly single-handedly smashed the Iowa State line for 56 yards in the Huskies last drive of the day, finishing with a 1-yard lunge up the middle that made the score, at the time, 31-21 Huskies. Nancy, on the sidelines, nearly went out of her mind, as did everyone in the stadium when the PA announced what Willie had just done.

("I couldn't catch my breath, I felt like I wanted to throw up when I came off the field after that," Willie told us in the locker room after the game. He felt a lot better by then, even though being beseiged by us reporters; Willie finished the day with the "modest" total of 148 yards on the ground, the biggest individual running day for a Husky in years. "And you newspaper people always say the Huskies have no running backs!" Willie said.)

Seems no one likes newspaper reporters any more. But all of the 47,500 fans at Husky Stadium obviously liked the football they saw on the field. And so did Nancy; as she was running after the team when the game was over, she yelled at us, "Isn't it great?!"

Even reporters are forgiven, apparently, when your team wins.

WHEN YOU WORK around machinery, take care to avoid wearing anything which might become entangled. Long hair, loose clothing, jewelry, neckties and untied shoe laces have each caused their share of painful accidents. Be especially careful to avoid rolled up or dangling sleeves.
